

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

CASE NO. 00-6356-CR-ZLOCH

v.

MICHAEL MCKAY

ORDER ON TRIAL INSTRUCTIONS

SUA SPONTE, the court hereby enters trial instructions to counsel of record. The Order is necessitated both by the Court's observations and the Court's hope that this Order will inform the lawyers what will be expected of them in the courtroom. It is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

1. The Court expects counsel to stand when addressing the Court unless excused by the Court. Counsel will not approach the bench without permission of the Court. Counsel are also to obtain permission before approaching the witness stand. Counsel shall stand no closer to witness than edge of counsel table.
2. Redirect and rebuttal are not to be a repetition of direct or the case in chief.
3. Recross examination will not be permitted unless a clear showing is made that manifest injustice would otherwise occur.
4. Objections to questions shall succinctly state the basis for the objection, e.g., leading, repetitive, ambiguous. No explanations of objections or speaking objections in the presence of the jury will be permitted. If further explanation is necessary, please request a sidebar conference.
5. Sidebar conferences are held at the discretion of the Court; counsel are reminded that requests for them are not automatically granted.
6. The Court prefers that counsel use the lectern as much as practicable in order to help the jury hear all of the questions.
7. In all jury cases the Court expects requested jury instructions, together with verdict forms in civil cases, to be submitted no later than the beginning of the trial.
8. In all non-jury/bench trials, the parties are required to provide the Court with proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law at the commencement of the trial. The parties shall also provide the Court with memoranda of law concerning any unique issues of law or fact involved in their case.
9. The following instructions will govern voir dire:
 - (a) The Court will conduct the general questioning of the jury basically following the Federal Judicial Center's suggested questions. If counsel have proposed voir dire questions, they must be submitted to the Court at least one full working day prior to the start of the Trial. If the voir dire process develops areas counsel would like to have pursued by further questions, counsel may write out the questions and submit them to the clerk; the Court will consider whether to ask the questions of the jury. Counsel may be permitted to ask questions of prospective jurors during the jury selection process at the discretion of the Court.
 - (b) In criminal cases, the parties shall be allotted the number of preemptory challenges provided by Rule 24(b), Fed. R. Crim. P. If there are multiple defendants, the defendants may be
